ABOUT OAKLAWN

Located in the heart of Hot Springs National Park, Oaklawn is one of the premiere Thoroughbred racetracks in the country, best known as home of the $1.5 million Arkansas Derby (G1). Founded in 1904 by brothers Louis and Charles Cella along with John Condon and Dan Stuart, Oaklawn wasn't the first track in Hot Springs, but by 1920, it was the only one.

Oaklawn ran meets from 1905-1907 before anti-gambling reform swept the state and closed the track until 1916. By the time it reopened for a 21-day season in 1916, Condon and Stuart had died, leaving the Cella brothers in control.

A little more than a decade after reopening, Oaklawn hosted three of the most famous horses in racing history: Pan Zareta, Old Rosebud, and Exterminator – all members of the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. This began a tradition of attracting the best horses in the country to race in Hot Springs.

While Oaklawn has become synonymous with Triple Crown race success, especially over the past 20 years thanks to horses such as Smarty Jones, Afleet Alex, Curlin, American Pharoah, Creator, Essential Quality and Mystik Dan, it has an even longer history of developing champions.

Oaklawn's stakes schedule has been developed as a way of showcasing the top horses across all divisions and year after year, the best horsemen in the world put races like the Arkansas Derby (G1), Fantasy Stakes (G2), Apple Blossom (G1), Oaklawn Handicap (G2) and Count Fleet Sprint Handicap (G3) on their schedules. Horses of the Year Cigar, Azeri, Zenyatta, Havre de Grace, Gun Runner and Thorpedo Anna, along with champions Bayakoa, Temperence Hill, Will Take Charge, Accelerate, Mitole, Midnight Bisou, and more recently Monomoy Girl, Whitmore and Letruska have left their mark on Oaklawn.

Today, Oaklawn offers much more than racing. It offers a Forbes recommended hotel, Arkansas' only four-star rated spa, The Astral Spa, multi-purpose event center, smoke-free casino, sports book, year-round simulcast racing and OaklawnAnywhere. The casino features Blackjack, Craps, Roulette, and slots, as well as Pop's Lounge, Forbes recommended OAK room & bar and Silks Bar and Grill. Other dining options include The Bugler, a Forbes recommended fine dining restaurant overlooking the historic track, Big Al's Diner & Deli, and Mainline Sports Bar, featuring casual dining, Topgolf swing suites, and darts, and launched the Oaklawn Sports app for mobile sports wagering.

LEADERSHIP

ERIC JACKSON
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

1

Jackson has been with Oaklawn since 1978, first as Director of Operations and then as General Manager starting in 1987. He was named to Oaklawn's Board of Directors in 1994. In March 2017, Jackson became Senior Vice President. He currently serves on the Arkansas Parks, Recreation and Travel Commission and the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College. In 2024, he was inducted into the Arkansas Business Hall of Fame and the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame.

JOE MOWERY
BOARD MEMBER

2 – 3

Ebel, a Hot Springs native, has been Oaklawn's chief lawyer since 1994. He specializes in corporate and tax law for the firm of Friday, Eldredge & Clark in Little Rock.

Mowery is a Managing Director at Stephens Inc., leading the firm's Dealership Group within the Investment Banking Department. His interest in thoroughbred racing began in the 1980's and he has been a regular fan of racing at Oaklawn since that time.

Born in St. Louis, Mo. in 1965, Louis Cella graduated from St. Louis Country Day School in 1983. He received a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Washington and Lee University in 1987. He earned a law degree in 1990 from the University of Arkansas School of Law. In 1989, he began working in his family's businesses, Southwestern Enterprises, Inc. and Oaklawn.

Over the years, he has held many positions within the companies as well as in the St. Louis community, including: Chairman of the Board/President of Oaklawn and Southwestern Enterprises, Inc.; Chairman of the Board/Director of The Muny (St. Louis Municipal Opera Theatre); Chairman of the Board/ Director of Arkansas Cancer Research Center, now known as the Winthrop Rockefeller Cancer Institute; Director of Myeloma Institute; Management Committee, Equibase Company; Director of Thoroughbred Racing Association; Director of Thoroughbred Racing and Protective Bureau; Director of National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame; Member and Steward of The Jockey Club; Director of Grayson Jockey Club Research Foundation; and Director of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association.

Cella is the fourth generation of his family to head Oaklawn Jockey Club, Inc., which was founded in 1904. Cella was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in April, 2026, as well as the Arkansas Tourism Hall of Fame in early 2022, and was named the 2020 Arkansas Democrat-Gazette Sportsman of the Year for his leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic. He was able to safely continue live racing while most of the country's racing industry shut down. Cella was also named Arkansas Press Association 2019 Headliner of the Year.

His contributions to Arkansas Tourism can be seen in his management of Oaklawn, one of the largest tourism attractions in the state with more than three million visitors each year. In addition to the annual direct taxes of more than $40 million to the state, city and county, the creation of the Oaklawn Foundation in 2006, an independent foundation benefiting health and education programs in the community, has given more than $20 million since its inception.

Oaklawn has evolved into a true destination resort. Guests visit Oaklawn from throughout the United States to experience the best Thoroughbred horse racing in North America, and to enjoy a Forbes recommended hotel, first-class entertainment, gaming, Astral Spa, Arkansas' only Forbes 4 star spa, and numerous restaurants and bars.

Cella's hobbies include fishing, golf and hunting. He and his wife Rochelle live in Ladue, Mo. and have two grown children and three grandchildren.

SENIOR MANAGEMENT

WAYNE SMITH

General Manager

Wayne Smith has served as General Manager of Oaklawn Hot Springs since March 2017, becoming only the sixth person to hold the position in Oaklawn's storied 120-year history. With more than 25 years of executive leadership experience in the gaming and hospitality industries, Smith has helped guide Oaklawn through one of the most transformative periods in its history.

Under his leadership, Oaklawn evolved from a historic Thoroughbred racetrack and gaming venue into a premier, year-round resort and entertainment destination. Smith oversaw a multimillion-dollar expansion that included a significantly expanded casino, a 198-room luxury Forbes Recommended hotel, two Forbes Recommended fine-dining restaurants, Arkansas' only Forbes Four-Star spa and a multipurpose event center.

The expansion did more than transform the Oaklawn property—it helped change the racing, gaming and hospitality landscape across Arkansas. By combining Oaklawn's nationally recognized Thoroughbred racing tradition with casino gaming, luxury accommodations, fine dining, entertainment and wellness amenities, Smith helped introduce a new level of destination hospitality to the state. The development strengthened Oaklawn's ability to compete with resorts throughout the region, attract visitors year-round and generate significant economic benefits for Hot Springs and Arkansas through tourism, employment and continued investment.

Smith also led Oaklawn's transition to an expanded live racing calendar, extending the racing season for the first time in the organization's history. This strategic move further elevated Oaklawn's national racing profile while positioning the organization for continued growth in an increasingly competitive entertainment marketplace. Throughout Oaklawn's evolution, Smith has remained committed to preserving the traditions and character that have made the property an Arkansas institution for generations.

Smith began his career in public accounting and finance before entering the hospitality industry with ITT Sheraton. Before joining Oaklawn, he held senior management positions with several of the gaming and hospitality industry's most recognized organizations, including MGM Grand Las Vegas, MGM Grand Detroit, Caesars Entertainment, Empire City Racing and Gaming in New York and Penn National Gaming in Illinois. His extensive experience has given him a broad understanding of finance, operations, guest service and large-scale resort development.

For more than two decades, Smith has also been actively involved in community and charitable organizations. He currently serves on the boards of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce and the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and as chairman of the Hot Springs Advertising and Promotion Commission. He has also served on several local advisory committees supporting the continued growth and development of the Hot Springs community.

A native of Narragansett, Rhode Island, Smith is a graduate of Northeastern University in Boston. He and his wife, Audrey, have two sons, Dylan and Riley.

1900-1930

1904 – Desiring to build a track closer to downtown, John Condon and Dan Stuart, who also ran Southern Club and Turf Exchange, a popular downtown Hot Springs night spot, and brothers Louis and Charles Cella of St. Louis, form the Oaklawn Jockey Club.

Celebrated Chicago architect Zachary Taylor Davis is hired to design Oaklawn's glass-enclosed, steam-heated grandstand – among the first of its kind in the country. The grandstand reportedly seated 1,500 people and cost $500,000. Davis designed Wrigley Field, the longtime home of the Chicago Cubs, a decade later.

Feb. 15, 1905 – The inaugural meet opens after a two-day delay due to severe cold and runs through March 18.

1906 – The Oaklawn site was used to host the inaugural Arkansas State Fair until 1914.

February 12, 1907 – Wagering on horse racing was declared illegal in Arkansas.

March 11, 1916 – Owner Louis A. Cella returns racing to Oaklawn after nine years of political uncertainty. Cella, from St. Louis, was a bookmaker, horseman, and financier, and started running tracks both in his hometown and in New Orleans. He later joined his brother, Charles J. Cella, in operating Douglas Park and Latonia Race Course in Kentucky. For a time, they challenged the preeminence of Matt Winn and Churchill Downs in the Blue Grass state. Fabled mare Pan Zareta won the feature that opening day and goes 3-for-3 for the meet.

March 8, 1917 – After one race in Mexico, Old Rosebud makes a winning debut at Oaklawn, 33 months after winning the Kentucky Derby in 1914. He would win again a week later, but would finish third at 137 lbs. to Pan Zareta at 113 lbs. when they met March 24. Old Rosebud would turn the tables on April 6 in an allowance race en route to leading the nation in handicap earnings that year.

April 29, 1918 – Louis A. Cella dies at 51 in St. Louis. His wife dies four days later and the bulk of his estate goes to his brother, Charles, who takes over at Oaklawn. Earl Sande takes the Oaklawn riding title as a teenage apprentice in 1918.

March 29, 1919 – The great Hall of Fame gelding Exterminator, the Kentucky Derby champ of 1918, begins a long 21-race campaign with two victories at Oaklawn that would yield him the handicap money title. Early Kentucky Derby favorite Eternal won his season debut in Hot Springs before finishing 10th behind Triple Crown winner Sir Barton in Louisville.

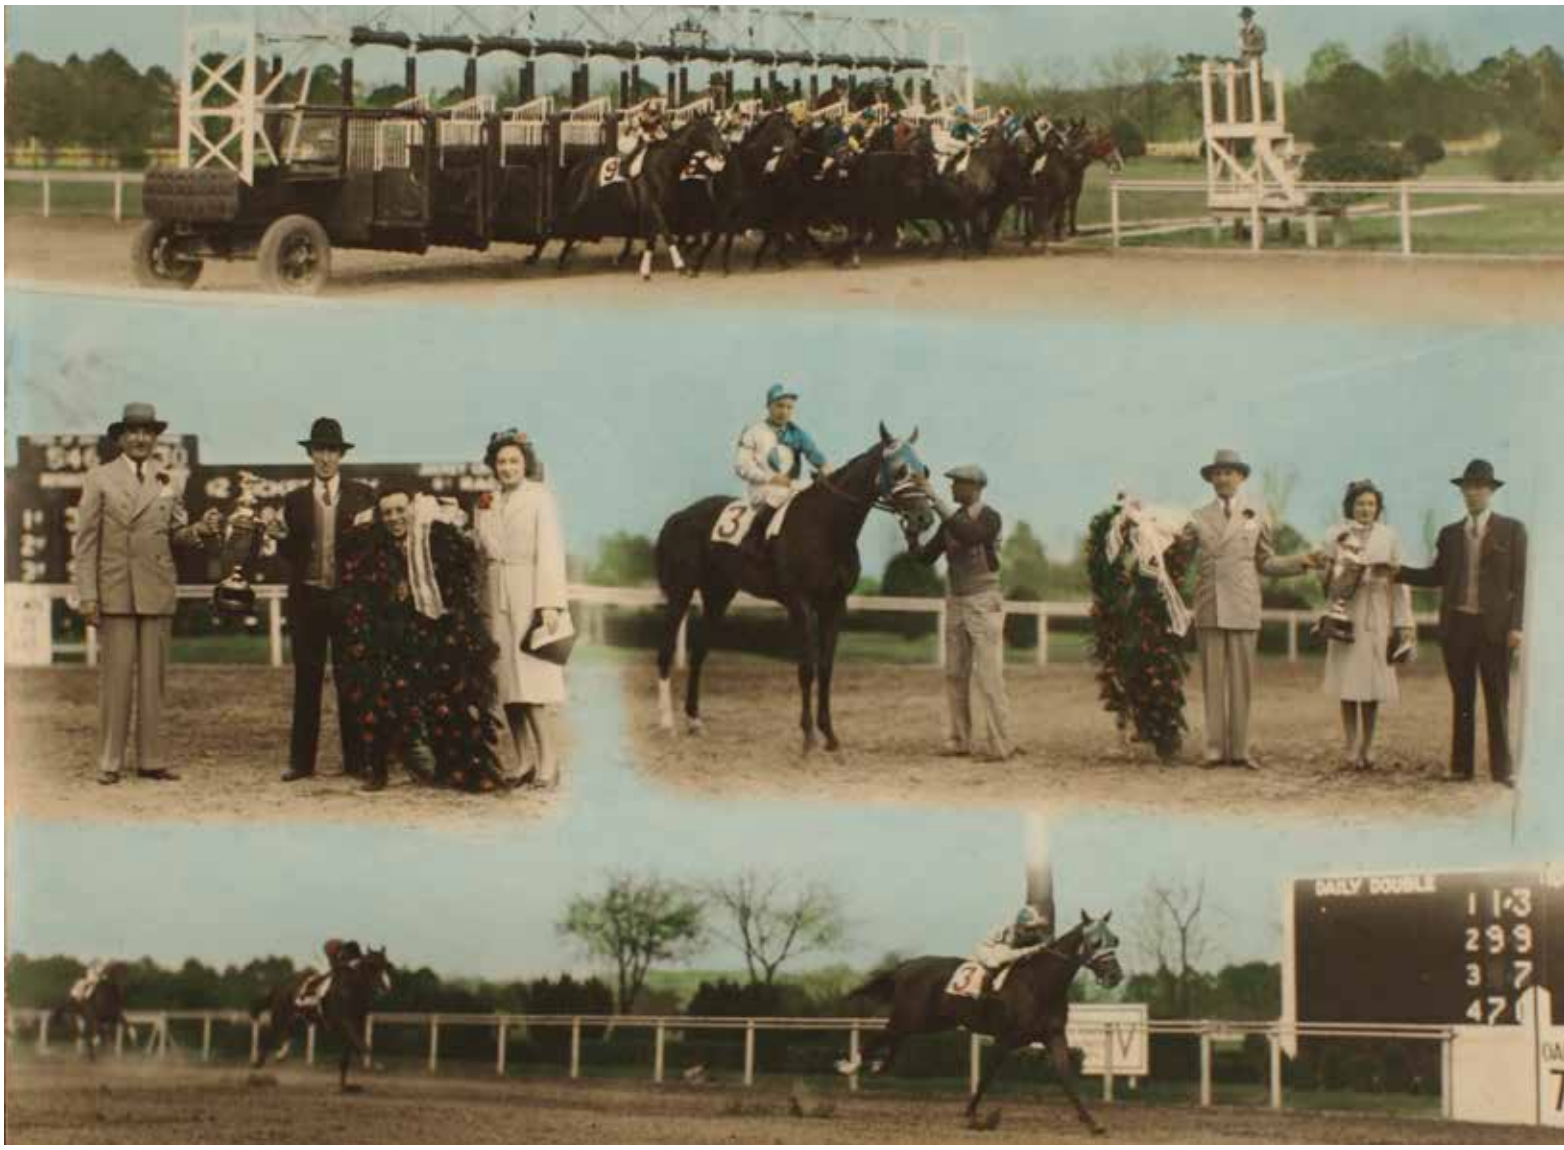

March 1, 1934 – Modern racing comes to Arkansas after a 15-year hiatus because of the political climate. The leading rider that season was Moose Peters, who went on to win the national title.

February 22, 1935 – A crowd of 12,000 wagered $78,000 on the first legal day of horse racing in the state of Arkansas under the auspices of the Arkansas Racing Commission.

1936 – The modern Arkansas Derby is born with a purse of $5,000. The first winner was Holl Image, owned and trained by Jack Carter. He would finish sixth in the Kentucky Derby. In the depths of the Great Depression, the state government requests Oaklawn run an extra fifth week of racing.

Chicago car dealer Emil Denemark and his wife dominate the owner's standings winning four straight feature races at one point and finishing one-two in the Arkansas Derby with Super Chief beating Colorado Ore during the 1940 season.

Oct. 29, 1940 – Charles Cella, president of Oaklawn, dies in St. Louis at 65. He had been in racing for 48 years. His son, John G., grandson, Charles J. and great-grandson Louis A. would later head the track.

March 28, 1941 – An all-time high $156,820 is distributed in purses during a 30-day season. A 2 mile, 70 yard race is won by Lonely Road in 3:37 flat. A marathon race would later become a fixture on the final day of the season. Handicap mare Veeks won all four of her starts.

1943 – Calumet Farm and trainer Ben Jones stable at Oaklawn. Among their horses are Mar-Kell, who would be named champion mare that year, Nellie L., who went on to win the Kentucky Oaks, and Ocean Wave. The latter was runner-up to Seven Hearts in the $10,000 Arkansas Derby. Oaklawn alumni Dove Pie and Modest Lad are in the gate for the Kentucky Derby behind Count Fleet's historic Triple Crown run.

Feb. 28, 1944 – Despite World War II restrictions, Oaklawn opens a 30-day meet. The stand would set attendance and handle records.

March 25 & April 1, 1944 – Challenge Me rolls to a 10-length victory in a race called the Oaklawn Handicap then returns a week later to take the Arkansas Derby over Shut Up by 3 ½ lengths. Shut Up would go on to finish fourth in the Kentucky Derby behind Pensive with Challenge Me 10th.

Jan. 2, 1945 – Tracks are asked to suspend operations because of the war effort.

Nov. 5, 1945 – The 1945 spring meet is moved to autumn with 30 days running through Dec. 8.

1946 – Purse distribution continues to soar at Oaklawn with $283,130 paid to horsemen. Apprentice jockey Red Keene won his first of three straight Oaklawn titles and went on to finish third nationally in wins to Ted Atkinson and Joe Licausi.

Feb. 24, 1947 – The Leo P. McLaughlin Inaugural Handicap is upset by Bubbling Easy, paying $92.20, $63.20, and $16.40.

March 7, 1950 – Phaltup pays a record $349.50 to win the last race of the day.

1952 – Eugene Bury steps down as racing secretary after 18 years. Kenneth McIntosh is named as his replacement.

1953 –Oaklawn meet extended from 30 to 31 days. Trainer Henry Forrest captures the three handicap stakes, winning the Inaugural with Ever Bright, the Hot Springs Handicap with Sherry L. and the Oaklawn Handicap with Our Challenge.

1954 – A new clubhouse dining room is built and new track cushion installed. J. Sweeney Grant is named General Manager, replacing R. Stanley Weber.

Feb. 21-23, 1955 – Apprentice Elbert Minchey rides his first career winner. The next racing day, Jesse Parsons notched his.

1958 – Allan W. (Doc) Lavin replaces McIntosh as Racing Secretary. Arkansas Derby purse increased to $20,000-added.

1959 – John G. Cella, grandfather of current Oaklawn head Louis A. Cella, presides over the first Hot Springs meet to average more than 10,000 fans and $500,000 in handle per day.

1900 1910 1930 1940 1950 1960

1960-1970

March 26, 1960 – The Arkansas Derby is divided for the first time in its history. Because of inclement weather, the meet is extended through April 2.

1961 – The Oaklawn season is extended to 43 days.

1962 – The track's purse distribution tops $1 million.

1963 – Oaklawn Handicap purse increases from $12,500 to $20,000-added and is won by Wa-Wa Cy.

Feb. 15, 1964 – A record opening-day crowd of 16,959 wagers a record $819,969 to start the 43-day season.

1965 – The Arkansas Derby, with an increased purse of $50,000, was won by Swift Ruler.

1966 – Attendance and wagering increase despite losing two of the 43 scheduled days in February because of heavy snow. The Oaklawn Handicap purse was increased to $50,000 and won by the previous year's Arkansas Derby winner, Swift Ruler.

Feb. 18, 1967 – Jet Avenger takes the Inaugural before a new opening-day record crowd of 17,343.

April 8, 1967 – Claiborne Farm's Monitor wins the Arkansas Derby in 1:48 3/5 by a nose over Ask the Fare setting a new track record. Barbs Delight was third in the blanket finish then went on to win the Derby Trial and finish second to Proud Clarion in the Kentucky Derby.

1968 – Track President and Chairman of the Board Charles J. Cella takes over as head of Oaklawn succeeding his father, John G. Cella, who died unexpectedly.

April 6, 1968 – Nodouble wins the Arkansas Derby. The Arkansas-bred goes on to finish third in the Preakness then becomes the champion Handicap horse the following two years with coast-to-coast wins, including the Brooklyn Handicap, Met Mile, Hawthorne Gold Cup (twice), San Pasqual Handicap and the Santa Anita Handicap. Following his racing career, Nodouble becomes one of the most influential sires of the latter half of the 20th century.

April 1, 1969 – Jockey Larry Snyder wins with six of his eight mounts to become the first jockey to ever win that many races on a single Oaklawn program.

April 1, 1971 – Crimson Saint equals a world record for a half-mile in :44 4/5 in the Ballerina Stakes.

July 7, 1971 – General manager J. Sweeney Grant dies and is replaced later in the year by W.T. (Bish) Bishop.

April 1, 1972 – With a field of 17 starters, the Arkansas Derby becomes the track's first $100,000 race. No Le Hace wins and later finishes second in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes. The 50-day meet averages more than a million dollars in daily handle.

April 6, 1973 – The inaugural Fantasy Stakes goes to Fair Grounds Oaks winner Knitted Gloves. She and three other Hot Springs rivals appear in the Kentucky Oaks behind winner Bag of Tunes.

1974 – The Racing Festival of the South is inaugurated with a stakes race each day over the final seven programs of the meeting, climaxed by the Arkansas Derby.

1975 – Oaklawn completes a renovation that added a five-level glass enclosure to the north end of the grandstand near the top of the stretch.

May 15, 1976 – Elocutionist becomes the first Arkansas Derby winner to take a Triple Crown race with his victory in the Preakness Stakes.

April 2, 1977 – Arkansas Derby Day attracted 54,216, the largest crowd in Oaklawn history. The second-largest crowd of 51,362 attend Fantasy Day March 26.

1979 – Arkansas Derby purse is raised to $150,000-added. Winner's share of $107,280 goes to Golden Act, who would hit the board in all three Triple Crown races. Alydar makes first stakes appearance as a 4-year-old in the Oaklawn Handicap (G2) and finishes second by a nose to San Juan Hill.

OAKLAWN ANYWHERE

$11 Million in Purses & Counting

Oaklawn Anywhere debuted in 2014 and, thanks to its success, more than $11 million has been generated for purses since. Racing fans from all over the state have proven their loyalty to their home track by signing up for accounts and using their smartphones, tablets, or laptop computers to wager from home or anywhere with internet or mobile access. In early 2021, fans began enjoying the improved Oaklawn Anywhere app available for iPhone users and an all new website design for those who prefer using laptop or desktop computers.

As always, Oaklawn Anywhere will continue to allow Arkansas residents to enjoy the thrills of live racing even when they can't be at the track. Benefits include: handicapping tips & tools, free past performances, free live streaming video and race replays, real-time racing information including odds, will-pays, track conditions, race results, EZ-money online deposit, and withdrawal service.

STEVE ASMUSSEN

#1 Owner

- Asmussen is the leading trainer in Oaklawn history and North America's all-time winningest trainer. He is also a highly successful owner. Asmussen captured his first career Oaklawn owner's title in 2024-2025 with 14 victories. Karl Broberg (End Zone Athletics) also finished with 14 victories.

- Asmussen won 14 races at the 2012 Oaklawn meeting to finish third in the standings. He won 12 races at the 2021-2022 Oaklawn meeting to finish fourth in the standings and tied for fourth in 2022-2023 with 10 victories.

- Asmussen has more than 1,500 career victories as a sole owner, including 152 at Oaklawn. Asmussen recorded 19 victories at the 2023-2024 Oaklawn meeting (a single-season local high) to finish second in the standings. He also had an Oaklawn career-best $821,192 in purse earnings.

- Asmussen recorded his first Oaklawn victory as a sole owner March 27, 1997, with Swift Appraisal. Asmussen, since 2003, has at least one victory as an owner at every Oaklawn meeting, except 2011.

- Although most of his victories have come in the claiming ranks (after claiming the horse for himself), Asmussen has campaigned stakes winners Clever Serve, Red Rock Creek and Neom Beach. Clever Serve was a 2019 allowance winner at Oaklawn. Neom Beach, carrying Asmussen's familiar blue and white silks, ran fourth behind 2024 Horse of the Year Thorpedo Anna in the Apple Blossom Handicap (G1) last April at Oaklawn before winning the Ouija Board Distaff Stakes at Lone Star Park in her next start.

RECORD

MOST LEADING OWNER TITLES: 8 Marion Van Berg

RECORD EARNINGS FOR A MEET: $2,085,402, Shortleaf Stables, Inc. - 2022

- After several high finishes, End Zone Athletics, retired trainer Karl Broberg's stable name, secured its first Oaklawn owner's title in 2024-2025 with 14 victories, sharing top honors with Steve Asmussen. End Zone Athletics entered the final day of the 2024-2025 meeting trailing Asmussen 14-13 before winning the third race with Vivir Con Alegria.
- End Zone Athletics won 15 races at the 2023-2024 Oaklawn meeting to finish third in the standings. Four of those victories were by Jackman, the co-winningest horse at the meeting. End Zone Athletics won eight races at the 2022-2023 Oaklawn meeting to tie for seventh.

- End Zone Athletics was Oaklawn's second-leading owner in 2021-2022 with 17 victories and had purse earnings of $660,371. Both figures represented single-season Oaklawn highs. Stable was headed that season by Greeley and Ben, who won 2 of 3 starts and ran the fastest 6 furlongs of the meeting (1:08.67).
- End Zone Athletics' first Oaklawn victory was March 22, 2008, with La Prima, who was trained by John Locke. Broberg bought out Locke's stable in 2009 and began training. End Zone Athletics has 91 career victories at Oaklawn as a sole owner, including 12 at the 2018 meeting to finish third in the standings.

- End Zone Athletics, through May 28, had more than 2,400 victories overall since its first starter in 2006. It was North America's winningest owner in 2016-2022 and No. 2 the last two years, according to Equibase. End Zone Athletics recorded a career-high 292 victories in 2018. In addition to Jackman and Greeley and Ben, End Zone Athletics campaigned multiple stakes winner Hunka Burning Love.
- End Zone Athletics is primarily a vast claiming operation for Broberg, among only 16 trainers in North American history with more than 4,000 career victories. Broberg retired from training in late 2024 with 4,907 victories.

OWNERS

TOM R. DURANT

Durant enjoyed his most successful Oaklawn meeting to date in 2025-2026 with 10 victories from just 35 starts to finish second in the standings. Ranked 12th in purse earnings with $476,000, Durant won two six-figure allowance races with Super Cruise, who also finished second in the $135,000 General MacArthur Overnight Stakes. Durant's most exciting winner at the meet was D'code, a home-bred son of deceased sprint champion Speightstown for trainer H. Ray Ashford Jr. D'code, in his Dec. 14 career debut, was a front-running 8 ¼-length winner in the fastest 6 furlongs for a 2-year-old (1:09.57) in Oaklawn history. Durant has won races at Oaklawn with several other trainers since 2000, including Ronny Werner, Randy Morse and Bret Calhoun. Top horses campaigned by Durant include graded stakes winners Silver Dust, Sing Baby Sing and Most Feared. Silver Dust earned $1,047,668 after being purchased by Durant for $510,000 as a 2-year-old.

ERIN GAARZ

Gaarz had a late start at the 2025-2026 Oaklawn meet – her first runner wasn't until Feb. 5 – but she finished fast to place third in the owner's standings. Won 9 of 32 starts overall and bankrolled $311,000 in purse earnings to rank 27th. Gaarz won two races Feb. 8 (Personal Jet and Filly Crystal) with horses previously owned by Karl Broberg's highly successful End Zone Athletics. Broberg retired as a trainer in 2024 and phased out his ownership operation in 2026. All nine of Gaarz's Oaklawn winners were trained by Abel Ramirez-Rodriguez, Broberg's former assistant. Broberg, before retiring, also trained for Gaarz. Momentum at Oaklawn carried over into the 2026 Lone Star meeting as Gaarz topped the owner's standings with 15 victories from 53 starts and ranked second in purse earnings with $260,000. Gaarz won four races with Got Glee, including turf claiming sprints in 2020 and 2021 at Gulfstream Park for trainer Steve Klesaris.

KEENE THOROUGHBREDS, LLC

Keene recorded his ninth top 12 finish in the Oaklawn owner's standings since 2012 in 2025-2026 with eight victories to tie for fourth. Keene's 2024-2025 Oaklawn meeting was highlighted by Max Got Excited's victory in the $175,000 Bachelor Stakes for 3-year-old sprinters. The Bachelor marked the first Oaklawn stakes victory for Keene. He won a personal-best 10 races in 2023-2024, with his 83 starters generating $587,120 in purse earnings, another Oaklawn high, to rank 13th. Keene began investing in Thoroughbreds 16 years ago and ranked 13th in North America in victories in 2017 (68). Keene topped the owner standings at Lone Star Park in 2013, 2014 and 2015, setting a single-season record for victories (38) in 2015. Keene is heavily invested in the Arkansas breeding program after purchasing a farm near Oaklawn, where his millionaire multiple Grade 3 winner Texas Chrome stood his first season at stud in 2018.

FLYING P STABLE

Colorful New York owner Jason "Jay" Provenzano's Flying P Stable had its best Oaklawn meeting to date in 2025-2026 with eight victories and $430,000 in purse earnings. Flying P tied for fourth in victories. Flying P won its eight races with three trainers – Mike Maker (six), Norm Casse (one) and Sarah Shaffer (one). Provenzano and Maker also teamed to win $500,000 Oaklawn Mile (G3) in 2024 with Frosted Grace. Provenzano, whose silks are hot pink, has 34 career Oaklawn victories as a sole owner, the first coming May 2, 2019. Provenzano grew up near Belmont Park in Elmont, N.Y., and is the son of former jockey Phil Provenzano. Other top horses campaigned by Flying P, solely or in partnership, include Oaklawn stakes winners Lone Rock and Lovely Ride and Grade 2 winners Ole Crazy Bone and Tell Your Daddy. Marathon standout Lone Rock was a Grade 2 winner.

JOHN HOLLEMAN

Arkansas native and attorney, John Holleman recorded his third top 10 finish in four seasons at Oaklawn after winning 7 of 30 starts in 2025-2026 to finish sixth in the owner's standings. Holleman tied for seventh in 2022-2023 with eight victories and was fourth in 2024-2025 with eight victories. Holleman, a Thoroughbred owner for five years, has 26 Oaklawn victories as a sole owner and 10 more in partnership. Holleman, as a sole owner, has two Oaklawn stakes victories – $200,000 Tinsel in 2022 (Bal Harbour) and the $200,000 Temperence Hill in 2024 (Masqueparade). Holleman, in partnership, captured the $150,000 Mistletoe Stakes and Pippin Stakes in 2022-2023 at Oaklawn with Lovely Ride and the $150,000 Mockingbird Stakes in 2024 at Oaklawn with Midshipman's Dance. Holeman has won six races at Oaklawn with Ninja Warrior. Holleman's last 18 Oaklawn winners were trained by Greg Compton (12) or Kenny McPeek (six).

MICHAEL MCMILLAN

Owner Michael McMillan's 2025-2026 Oaklawn meeting was highlighted by his first stakes victory in Hot Springs when Dirty Rich captured the opening-day $150,000 Advent for 2-year-old sprinters. McMillan finished with six victories to tie for seventh in the standings. All six winners were trained by Peter Miller. McMillan grew up in Arizona before establishing a medical biologics and billing company in Las Vegas. McMillan became interested in Thoroughbred racing after buying a home six years ago near Del Mar. After attending Del Mar as a fan, McMillan went to the racing office one day, asked how to claim a horse and subsequently met trainer Val Brinkerhoff, a Southern California regular. McMillan recorded his first career victory Jan. 15, 2023, at Santa Anita with the Brinkerhoff-trained My Harbors Dream. McMillan and Brinkerhoff teamed to win the 2024 Gazelle Stakes (G3) at Aqueduct and a 2025 allowance race at Oaklawn with Where's My Ring.

STARRY NIGHT RACING

Southern California-based Starry Night Racing won two races at the 2024-2025 Oaklawn meeting and six last season to tie for seventh in the owner's standings. Starry Night Racing's 2024-2025 Oaklawn winners were trained by Kent Sweezey, with Southern California-based trainer Peter Miller overseeing the 2025-2026 winners. Starry Night Racing had 88 career victories as a sole owner through July, the first coming Feb. 9, 2017, at Santa Anita. Starry Night Racing (29 victories) ranked 67th among North American owners in 2025. Starry Night Racing is active at the claim box and involved in partnerships. One partnership horse, Immortalised, won the Cutler Bay Stakes last March at Gulfstream Park before finishing second in the Penn Mile (G3) in his next start. Starry Night Racing won 10 races at Gulfstream's 2025-2026 Championship meeting to tie for leading owner. Another victory was with Fulmine, then with Sweezey, in the Hutchinson Stakes.

TRACY FARMER

A nationally prominent Kentucky breeder and owner, Tracy Farmer recorded his first career Oaklawn victory Dec. 27, 2025, when Search Party broke her maiden by six lengths. Search Party, a homebred, returned to give Farmer his first career Oaklawn stakes victory in the $300,000 Martha Washington Feb. 6 for dual Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse. Farmer won five races overall to tie for ninth in the 2025-2026 standings. Farmer and Casse have teamed for several other major victories the last decade, including the 2019 Belmont Stakes (G1) with Sir Winston and the Ashland Stakes (G1) and Acorn Stakes (G1) in 2025 with La Cara. Prior to Casse, Farmer had a successful run with Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito, campaigning, among others, millionaire Grade 1 winners Albert the Great and Commentator. Farmer owns Shadowlawn Farm near Lexington, Ky., where he boards his mares. Farmer, in 2025, ranked in 31st in North American purse earnings ($2,160,542).

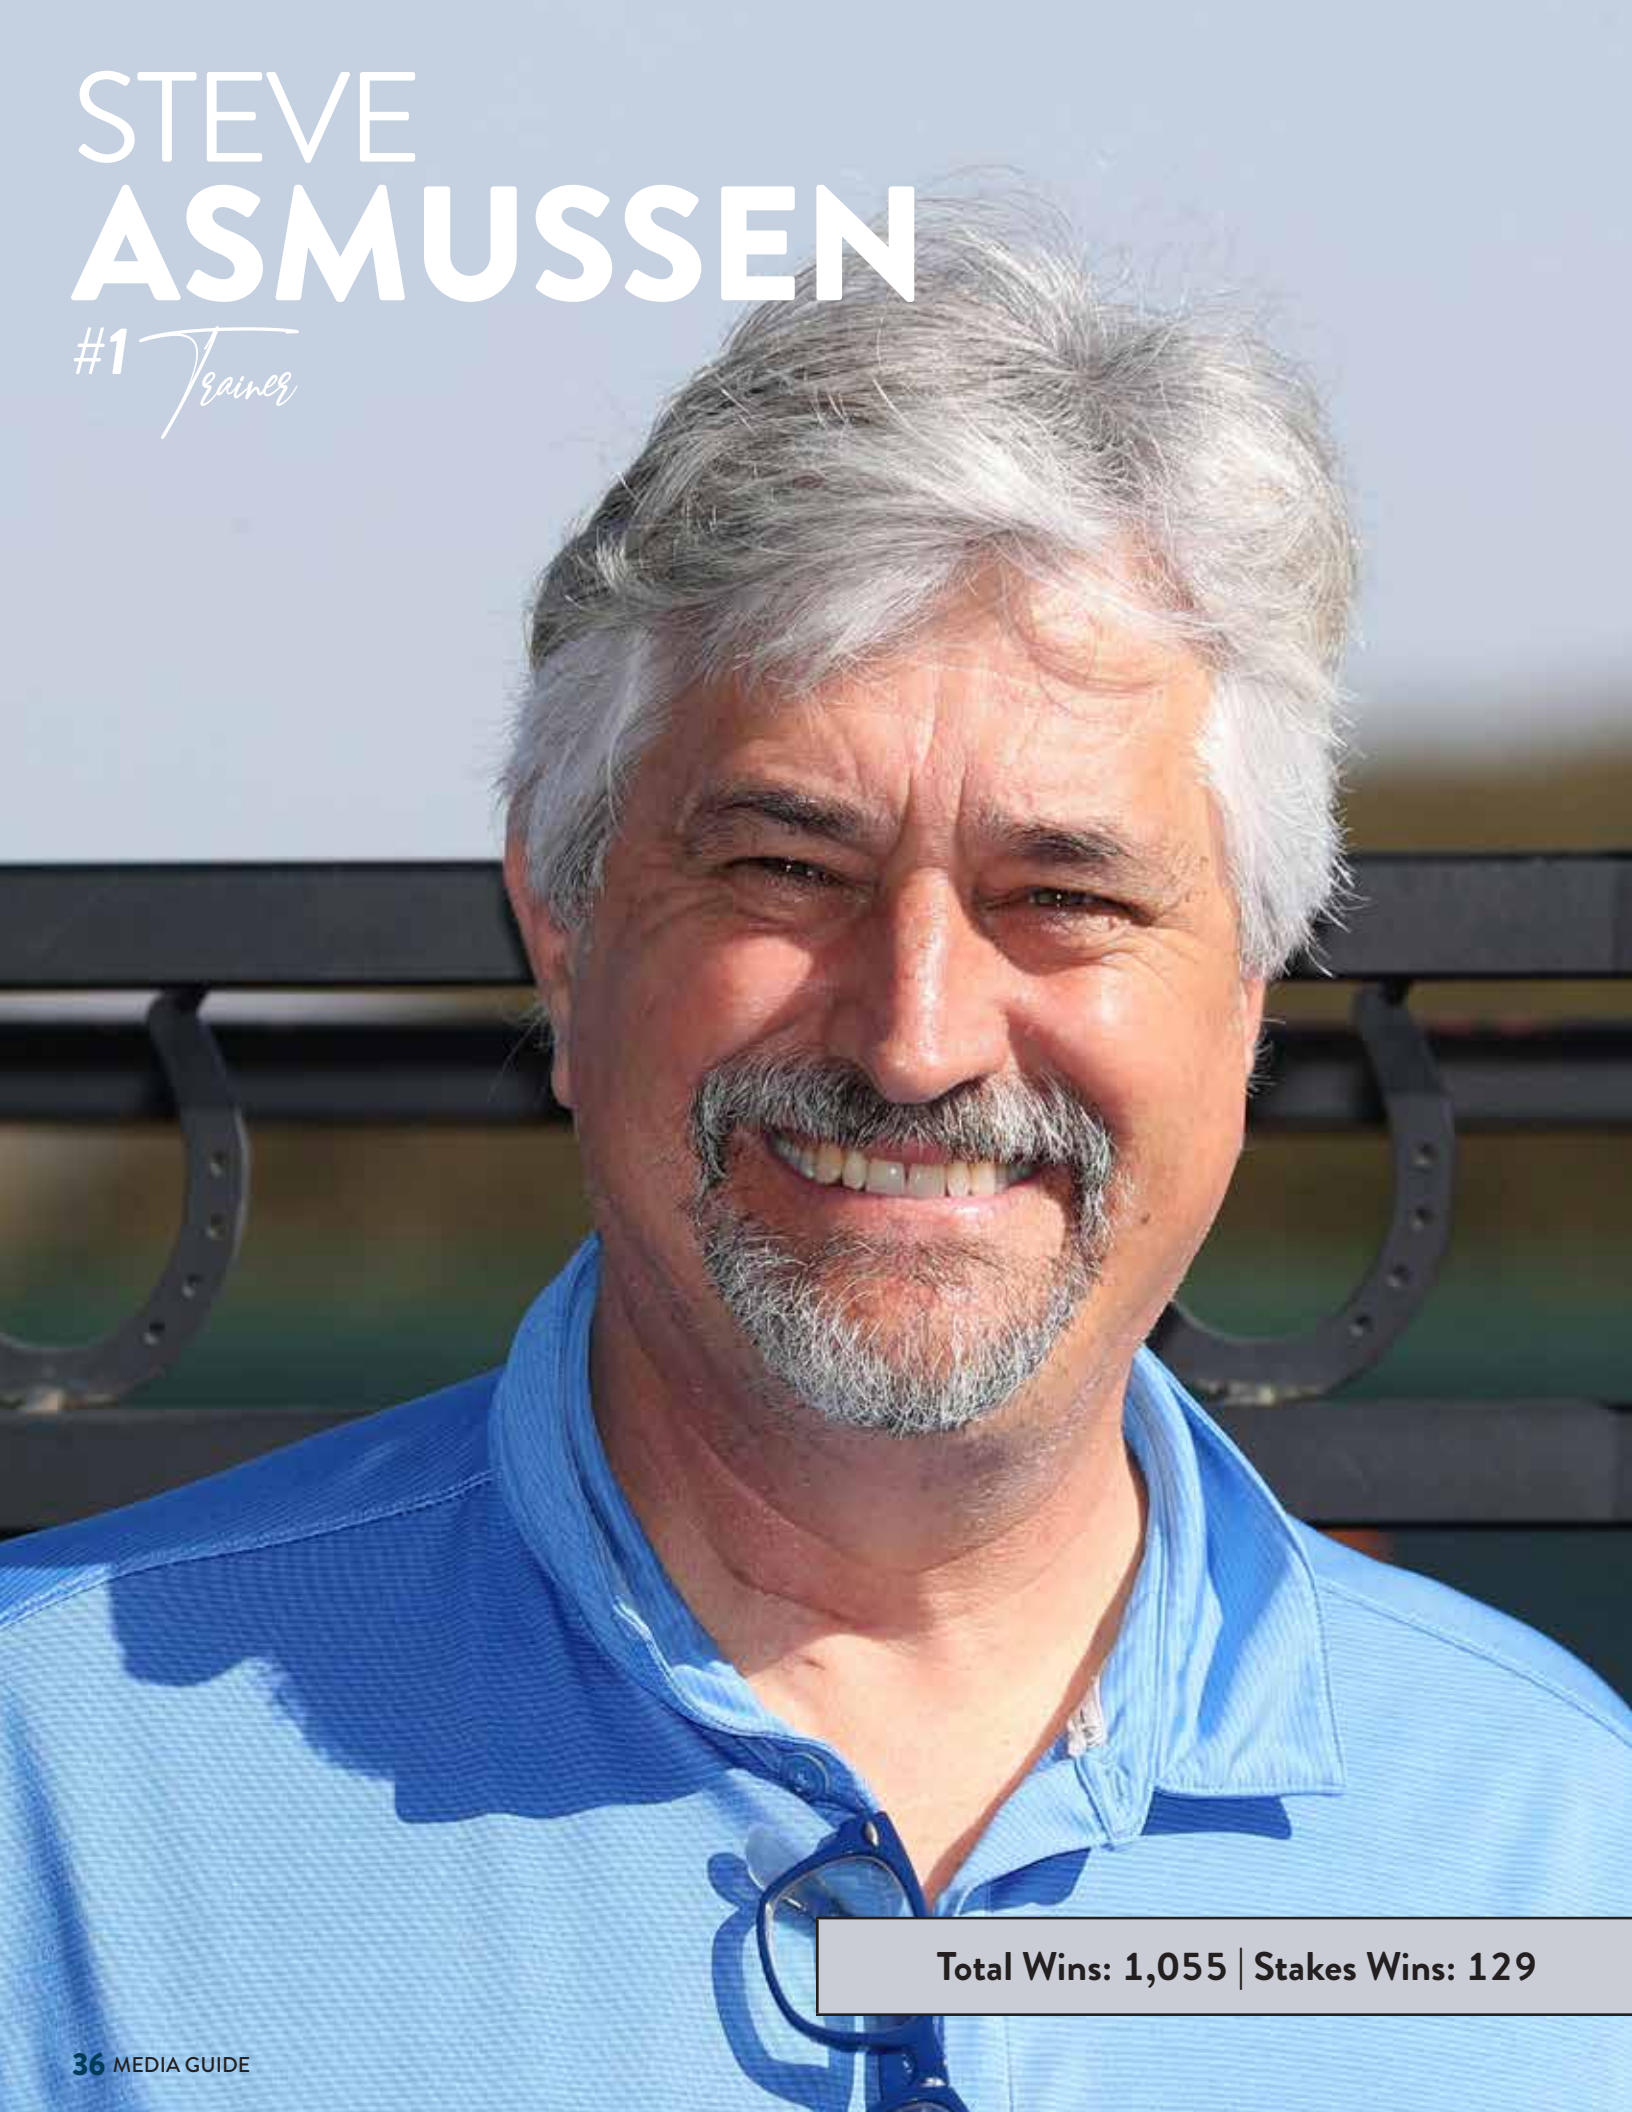

RANDY PATTERSON

Breeder/owner Randy Patterson has 63 career victories as a sole owner at Oaklawn, the first March 8, 1988. Patterson tied for second in the 2011 Oaklawn owner's standings with nine victories, highlighted by his first stakes score in the $100,000 Essex Handicap with the Randy Morse-trained Kate's Main Man, a $35,000 claim. Patterson won five races in 2025-2026 at Oaklawn to tie for ninth. Patterson and Morse teamed for two stakes victories – Dreaminblue ($135,000 Silks Overnight) and Spring Dancer ($135,000 Majestic Overnight). Patterson and Morse, the owner's longtime trainer/business partner, also campaigned stakes winners Street Strategy, Maize Road and millionaire Moonshine Mullin, a $40,000 claim in November 2013 at Remington Park. Moonshine Mullin won his last five starts, including the 2014 Stephen Foster Handicap (G1). Patterson owns Cedar Run Farm outside Hot Springs. Cedar Run Farm owns Street Strategy, now a top Arkansas stallion.

- Another Oaklawn season, another Oaklawn milestone for Asmussen, who collected his 1,000th career local victory in a Dec. 28 allowance race with Duke of Duval. Asmussen finished with 62 victories in 2025-2026 to capture his record-extending 15th Oaklawn training title and third consecutive.

- In addition to victories, Asmussen led all trainers in purse earnings with $5.3 million. His six stakes victories included top older horse Magnitude in the $500,000 Razorback Handicap (G3).

- Earned his 14th Oaklawn training title in 2024-2025 with 46 victories from a staggering 500 starts. Asmussen also led all trainers at the meeting in purse earnings ($5,502,445) and stakes victories (eight).

- Asmussen's biggest victories included the Essex Handicap (G3) with Red Route One and the Count Fleet Sprint Handicap (G3) with Booth. Booth represented Asmussen's fourth consecutive Count Fleet victory and record-extending seventh overall. Asmussen also won the Lake Hamilton Stakes for the third consecutive year with older sprint star Skelly.

- Asmussen won 71 races in 2023-2024 to equal the late Cole Norman's single-season Oaklawn record. Asmussen holds career Oaklawn records for victories (1,055), stakes victories (129) and purse earnings ($69.2 million). Asmussen also set a single-season Oaklawn records for purse earnings ($6,685,459) and stakes victories (11) in 2023-2024.

- Became the first trainer to reach 10,000 career North American victories when Bet He's Ready won the fifth race Feb. 20, 2023, at Oaklawn. Later in the 2022-2023 meeting, Asmussen notched his 100th Oaklawn career stakes victory when Skelly won the Count Fleet Sprint Handicap (G3) and surpassed the late Bob Holthus (867 victories) as Oaklawn's all-time winningest trainer when Red Route One won the Bathhouse Row Stakes.

- A two-time Eclipse Award winner (2008 and 2009) as the country's outstanding trainer, Asmussen also topped the Oaklawn standings in 2007, 2008, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2021-2022. He has at least one stakes victory at every Oaklawn meeting since 1996. Asmussen was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2016.

- Trained three consecutive Horse of the Year honorees in Curlin (2007 and 2008) and Rachel Alexandra (2009). Curlin and Rachel Alexandra are both multiple Oaklawn stakes winners. Gun Runner began his 2017 Horse of the Year campaign for Asmussen with a runaway victory in Oaklawn's $500,000 Razorback Handicap (G3).

RON MOQUETT

Moquett closed with a rush at the 2025-2026 Oaklawn meeting to become the seventh trainer in its history to reach 400 career victories. Moquett hit the milestone closing day (May 2) when Sinner's Sin captured an allowance sprint in the ninth race for Oaklawn owner Louis Cella. Moquett won 20 races over the final 32 days of the meeting – a torrid stretch that began March 6 – to finish with 25 overall and second in the standings. Moquett won two stakes during the five days of racing – $200,000 Dig a Diamond with Queen's Martini and $150,000 Natural State Breeders' with Queen Mallard. Best horse to date is Whitmore, a seven-time Oaklawn stakes winner who won the 2020 Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1) en route to an Eclipse Award as North America's champion male sprinter. Moquett also saddled Speed King to win Oaklawn's $1 million Southwest Stakes (G3) in 2025.

Total Wins: 400 | Stakes Wins: 26

MARK CASSE

Casse enjoyed his best Oaklawn season to date in 2025-2026 with 23 victories from just 82 starts to finish third in the trainer standings. Almost two-thirds of Casse's starters finished in the top three. Casse won four races Feb. 6, including two stakes, and finished No. 2 in purse earnings ($4.2 million). Won the first eight stakes races he competed in, including the $150,000 Year's End with Counting Stars, $1 million Southwest (G3) with Silent Tactic and the $250,000 Bayakoa (G3) with champion Nitrogen. Casse finished with 10 stakes victories, just off Steve Asmussen's single-season Oaklawn record 11. Counting Stars later won the $1 million Fantasy Stakes (G2) – Oaklawn's biggest race for 3-year-old fillies – and the prestigious Acorn Stakes (G1) at Saratoga. Casse was inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2016 and elected to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2020.

CHRIS HARTMAN

Hartman recorded his fifth consecutive Oaklawn season with 20-plus victories, scoring 22 in 2025-2026 to finish fourth in the trainer standings. Ranked seventh in purse earnings with $1.44 million. Hartman's most accomplished horse, millionaire older sprinter Tejano Twist, notched his fourth career Oaklawn stakes victory in the $250,000 Whitmore (G3) March 14. Tejano Twist also won the Whitmore in 2023. Hartman has Thoroughbred racing in his bloodlines. His grandfather, father and mother all trained at Turf Paradise in Phoenix. He set out on his own and received his trainer's license at the age of 18. Since topping the Oaklawn trainer standings in 2015 with 34 victories, Hartman has been among Oaklawn's leading trainers. Hartman set an Oaklawn personal best for victories (37) in 2022-2023. Hartman makes Arkansas and Kentucky his year-round circuit. He is assisted by wife Hillary. Chris Hartman's step-daughter, Jackie Slawson, co-owns Tejano Twist.

Total Wins: 548
Stakes Wins: 23

A perennial top five rider at Oaklawn, Vazquez secured his first career title in Hot Springs in 2025-2026 with 76 victories. He ranked third in purse earnings ($4.2 million). Became the 11th jockey to reach 500 career Oaklawn victories when he won the sixth race Feb. 20 aboard Cur Non for trainer Boyd Caster.

- Rode four winners opening day (Dec. 12), including the $150,000 Advent Stakes aboard Dirty Rich, and four winners closing day (May 2). Vazquez equaled his Oaklawn single-day career best with five victories Feb. 16 and March 22.
- Vazquez rode 40 winners in 2024-2025 at Oaklawn to finish fifth in the standings. It was his ninth top five finish at Oaklawn, where he has regularly ridden since 2012. Vazquez won four stakes that season, including the Renaissance and Advent aboard Kale's Angel for Southern California-based trainer Peter Miller.
- After not riding regularly at the 2022-2023 Oaklawn meeting because he was based in Southern California, Vazquez returned to Hot Springs in 2023-2024 and rode 39 winners to tie for sixth in the standings. Meet highlights included becoming the 13th jockey to reach 400 career victories at Oaklawn when he captured the $150,000 Pippin Stakes aboard Misty Veil for trainer Mike Maker. Vazquez and Maker teamed later in the meeting to win the $500,000 Oaklawn Mile (G3) with Frosted Grace.
- Vazquez recorded his most lucrative career victory to date aboard Un Ojo in the $1 million Rebel Stakes (G2) in 2022 at Oaklawn. Un Ojo ($152.80) represented the second-biggest pari-mutuel upset in Oaklawn stakes history. Rode 44 winners at the 2021-2022 Oaklawn meeting before departing early to ride in Southern California, where he subsequently won or shared five riding titles at Los Alamitos, was leading rider at the 2022 Santa Anita fall meet and recorded his first career Grade 1 stakes victory in the United States in the Del Mar Debutante in September 2022 at Del Mar.
- In addition to Santa Anita and Los Alamitos, Vazquez owns riding titles at Lone Star Park, Remington Park and Prairie Meadows. He was Oaklawn's second-leading rider in 2015, 2016 and 2017.
- Vazquez, through September 1, had 3,982 victories and $98.1 million in purse earnings in his North American career. Vazquez began his riding career in 2002 in his native Puerto Rico, where he has more than 1,500 career victories.

Saez rode the final stakes winner for the late Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas (Princess Aliyah) in the $200,000 Valley of the Vapors in April 2025 at Oaklawn. A native of Panama, Saez owns riding titles in New York, Florida and Kentucky and had amassed, through early July, more than 3,900 victories during a North American career that began in 2009.

AMIR MENDOZA

Panama native Mendoza arrived in the United States in November 2025 and was Oaklawn's runaway leading apprentice in 2025-2026 with 34 victories, tying for seventh in the standings and ranking ninth in purse earnings ($2 million). He recorded his first North American victory Dec. 14 at Oaklawn and first double Dec. 19. Mendoza won 16 races at Horseshoe Indianapolis before losing his 5-pound apprentice allowance July 8, then won his first two races as a journeyman July 9. He finished his North American apprenticeship with 52 victories and $2.75 million in earnings. His first stakes victory came aboard Oaklawn-raced C. J.'s Storm in the $100,000 Nobody Listens Handicap June 24 at Horseshoe Indianapolis for co-owner/trainer and Oaklawn regular John Haran. Mendoza won 35 races in Panama before arriving in Kentucky in November 2025.

Total Wins: 34 | Stakes Wins: 0

ABEL CEDILLO

Cedillo, in his first full season at Oaklawn, rode 25 winners to tie for ninth in the 2025-2026 standings. Moved his tack to Oaklawn for the final few weeks of the 2024-2025 meeting and won six races, including the $200,000 Dig a Diamond Stakes aboard Majestic Oops and the $200,000 Lake Ouachita Stakes aboard Saudi Crown. Saudi Crown edged 2024 Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan by a nose in the 1 1/16-mile race for older horses. Cedillo added another Oaklawn stakes victory last season ($135,000 General MacArthur Overnight) aboard Mackman. Cedillo posted his first career North American victory in 2010 at the now-defunct Golden Gate Fields in northern California. He won the Pacific Classic (G1) in 2020 at Del Mar aboard champion Maximum Security. Cedillo, who owns riding titles in Southern California and northern California, moved his tack to the Midwest in late 2023.

Total Wins: 31 | Stakes Wins: 3

KEITH ASMUSSEN

Despite missing the first few weeks of the 2025-2026 Oaklawn meeting with a broken pelvis, Keith Asmussen recorded his fourth consecutive top 10 finish with 25 victories, tying for ninth. He won two stakes closing week – the $150,000 Natural State Breeders' aboard Queen Mallard and $200,000 Arkansas Breeders' Championship aboard Hess. Asmussen won five stakes in 2024-2025, including the $500,000 Essex Handicap (G3) aboard Red Route One for his father, Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen. His breakout 2023-2024 meet included runner-up finishes in victories (58) and purse earnings ($4,696,737), with 44 wins for his father, Oaklawn's all-time leading trainer. That season, he also earned his first graded stakes victory aboard Lemon Muffin in the $400,000 Honeybee (G3) for Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas.
